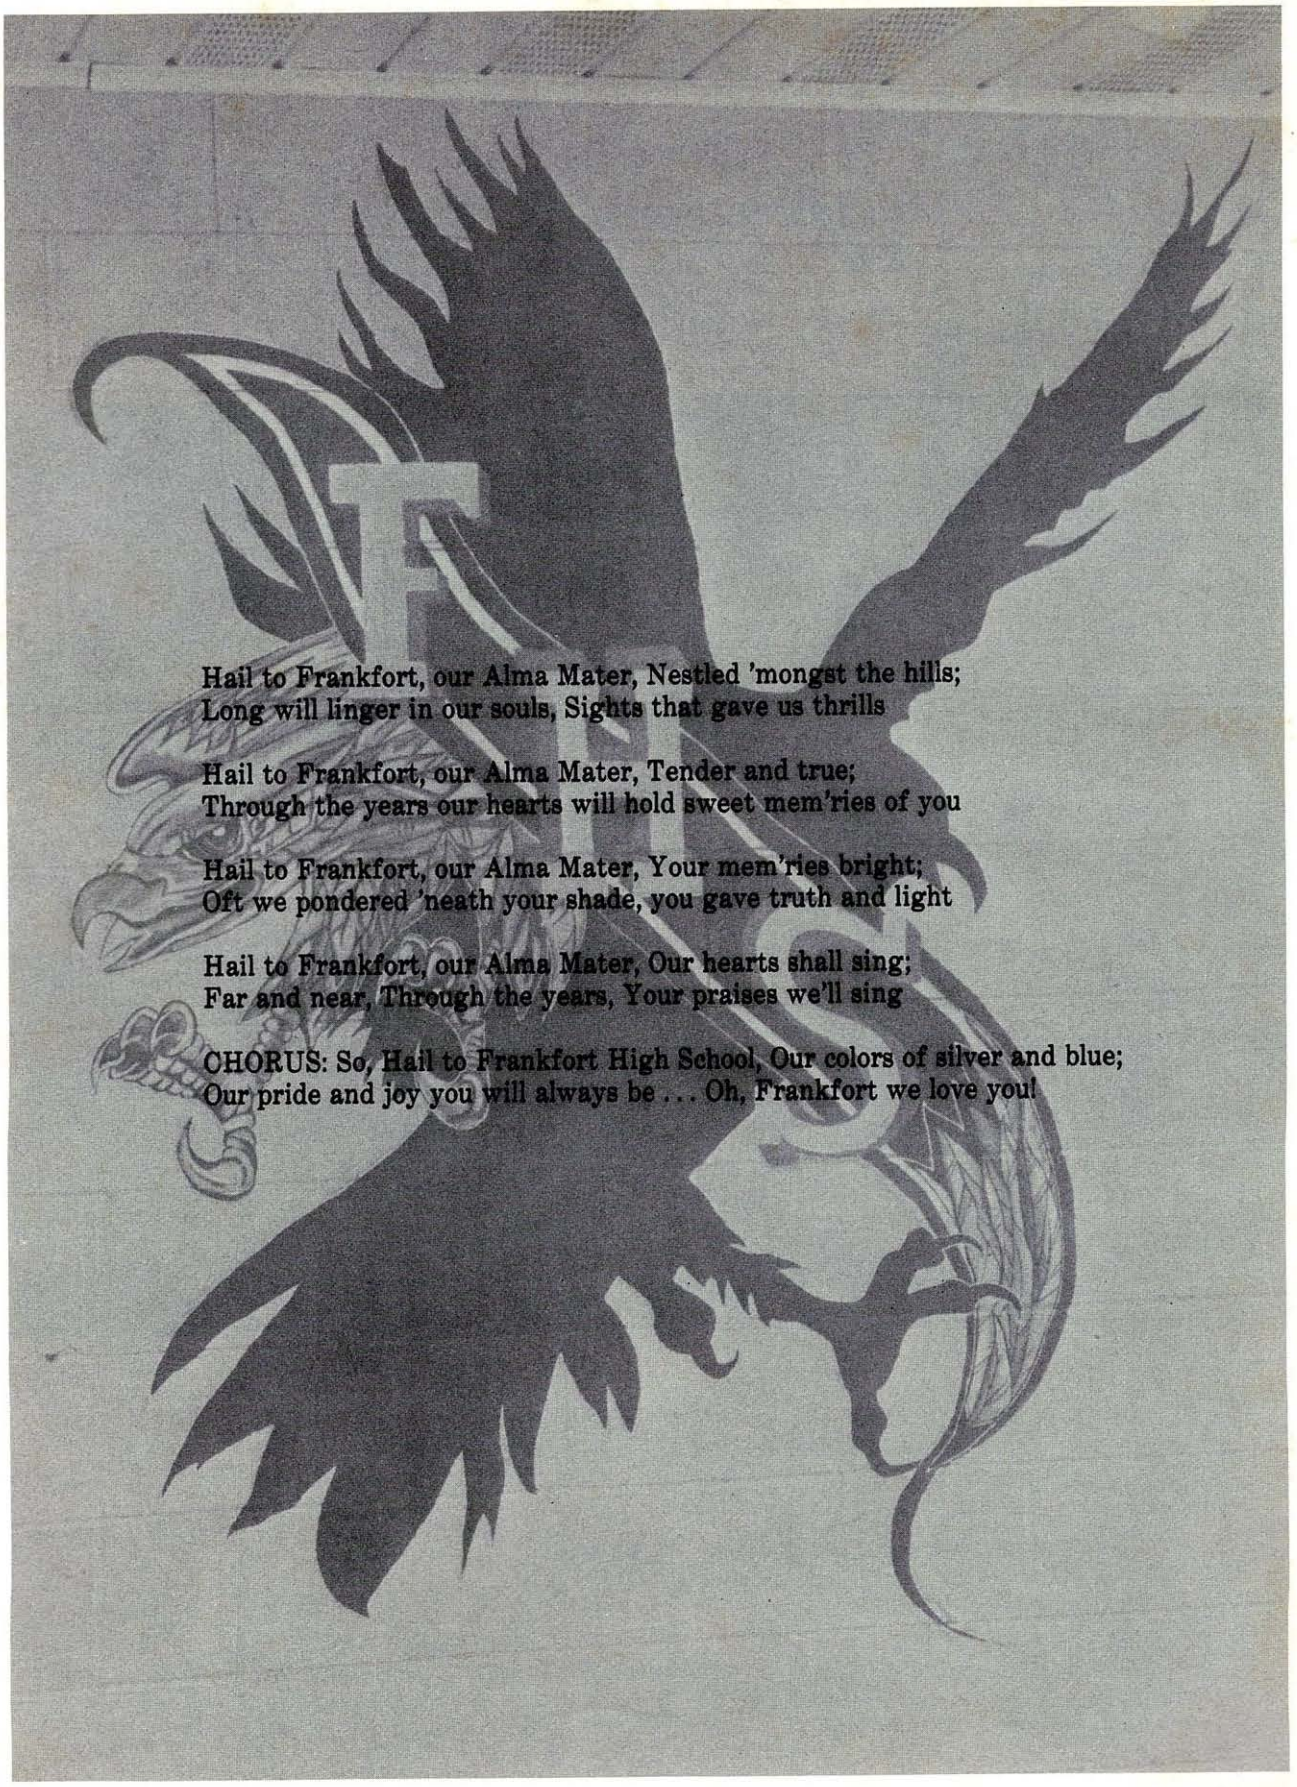
Short Gap, WV

Volume I



Hail to Frankfort, our Alma Mater, Nestled 'mongst the hills;
Long will linger in our souls, Sights that gave us thrills

Hail to Frankfort, our Alma Mater, Tender and true;
Through the years our hearts will hold sweet mem'ries of you

Hail to Frankfort, our Alma Mater, Your mem'ries bright;
Oft we pondered 'neath your shade, you gave truth and light

Hail to Frankfort, our Alma Mater, Our hearts shall sing;
Far and near, Through the years, Your praises we'll sing

CHORUS: So, Hail to Frankfort High School, Our colors of silver and blue;
Our pride and joy you will always be . . . Oh, Frankfort we love you!

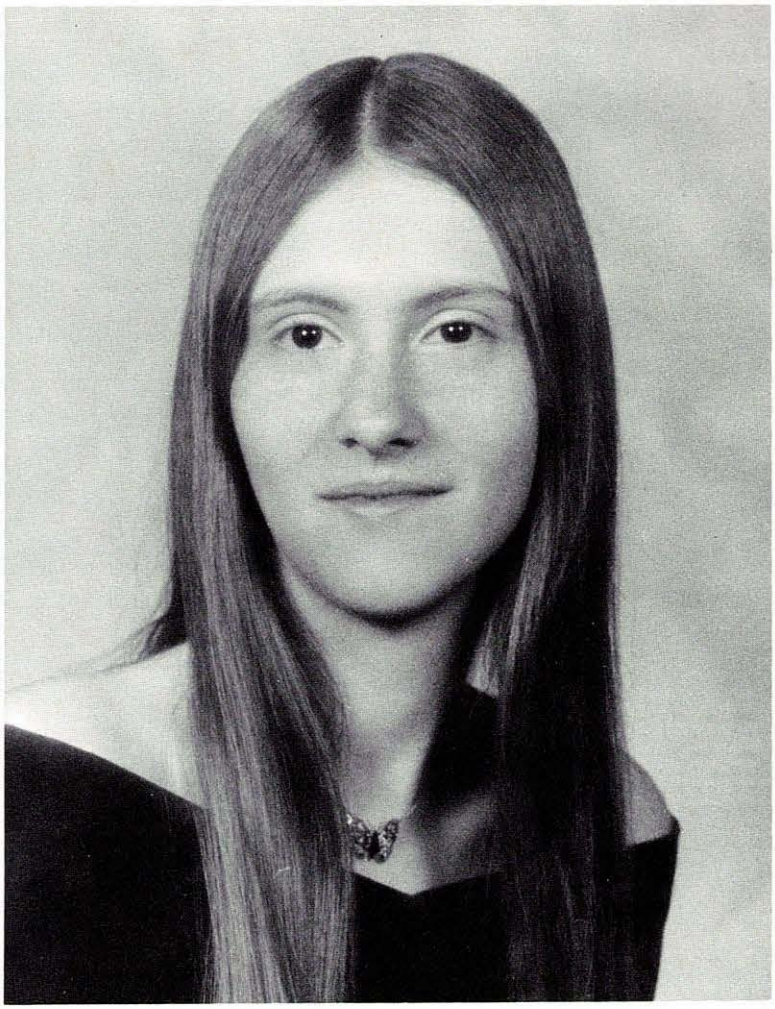
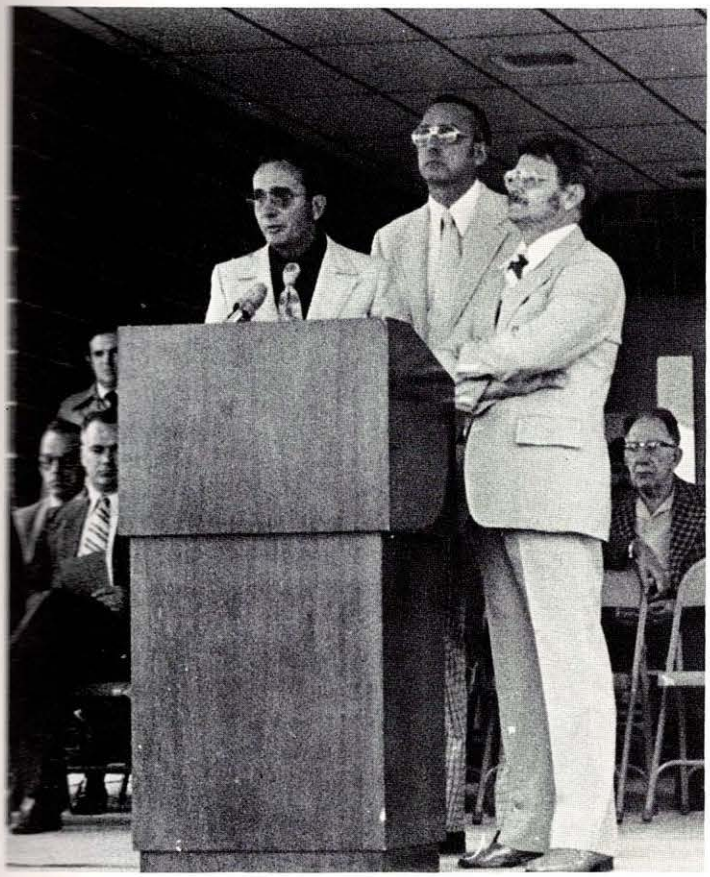
In Memory of Mel



Melanie Kay Detrick, a member of the Class of '77, has been greatly missed by her fellow classmates and friends since her death in late December. Melanie was a member of the National Honor Society and the girls' basketball team. She served as business manager of the 1977 Talon staff, selling more boosters and advertisements than any other staff member. Her physical beauty was not only matched but exceeded by the elegance she had in her heart when it came to compassion. Melanie made it known to her parents that she wanted her kidneys donated to someone who needed them. This wish was fulfilled upon her death. She is gone, but her unselfish love and deeds will live forever.

Frankfort High Dedication



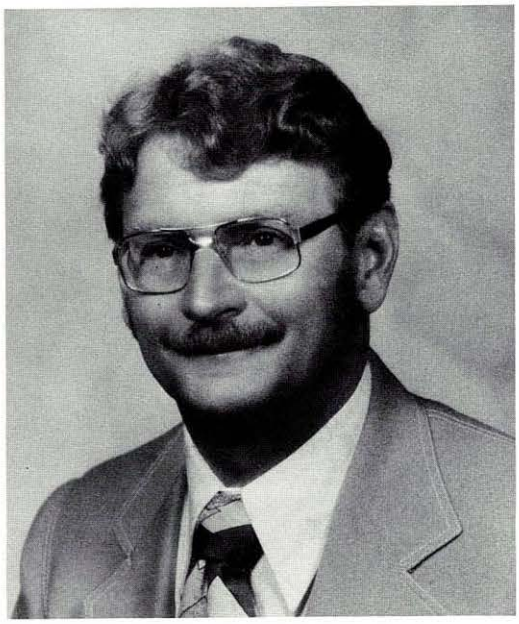
On August 26, 1976, a dream came true for those who had worked and given their time for Frankfort High School.

Bernard Douthitt, member of the board of education, opened the dedication ceremonies, followed by fellow board member Marion Phillips who presented the school key to Dr. Charles Coffman, principal. He stated that he hoped that the "spirit that helped build the stadium will project throughout our school program."

J. R. Haines, director of pupil services, Melvin M. Heiskell, and J. W. Marker, former principals, also spoke that night.

The ceremony was followed by tours of the school and a Fun Fair sponsored by the Frankfort High School Booster Club.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE



The school system of Mineral County is meeting the needs and wishes of the citizens of the Frankfort District in the beautiful, new, consolidated Frankfort High School at Short Gap, West Virginia.

To you, the students, we the educators pledge not only to give you the most profitable education possible, but to also prepare you to become the kind of citizens that will make this "ol" world a better place to live.

Today, we all face many serious problems. The school shall seek to give you every opportunity to prepare yourselves for living victoriously – whatever the task of tomorrow.

I sincerely believe the Frankfort spirit – the spirit of love and cooperation – will bring honor to you, the students, and reflect credit on our high school. Toward that goal we are striving; to that end we are dedicated.

Dr. Charles L. Coffman

ASSISTANT

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

As assistant principal, I urge each of you to make the most of your time spent at Frankfort High School. Many of the briefest moments at Frankfort will prove to be some of the fondest memories of your adult life.

As students, you are fortunate in helping to develop the fighting "Falcon Spirit." This spirit will also become an integral part of your life. Spirit will keep you trying when you want to give up. Spirit will give you strength when you feel tired, and spirit will give you hope when you are losing.

Remember that your high school education is not an end, but only another step forward toward a brighter new tomorrow.

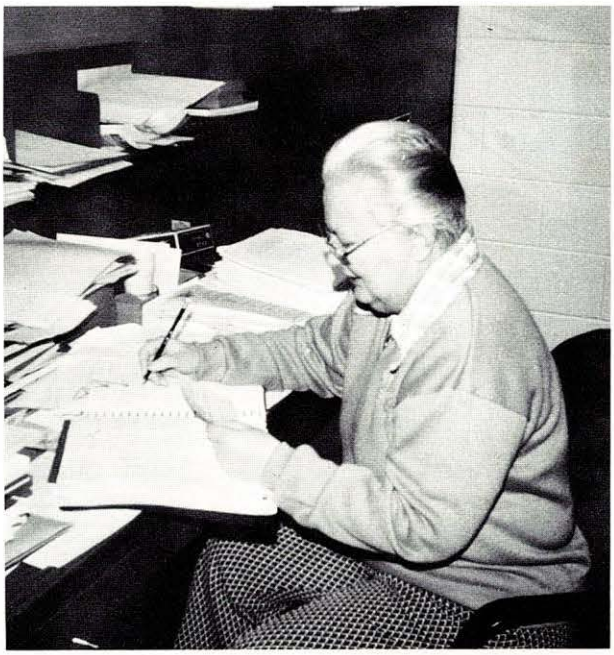
Auxilary Personnel

Our personnel staff has been most important in keeping our school in excellent condition and providing us with nutritious meals. The cooks are (L-R) Kay Llewellyn, Barbara Kidwell, Peg Sidaway, Jean Shafferman, and Donna Lambert (head cook). Our custodial staff consists of (L-R) William Stickley, Nelson Estep (head custodian), Ronald Riley, Carl Houdersheldt, and Charles Walters.

Not Debbie's schedule again?

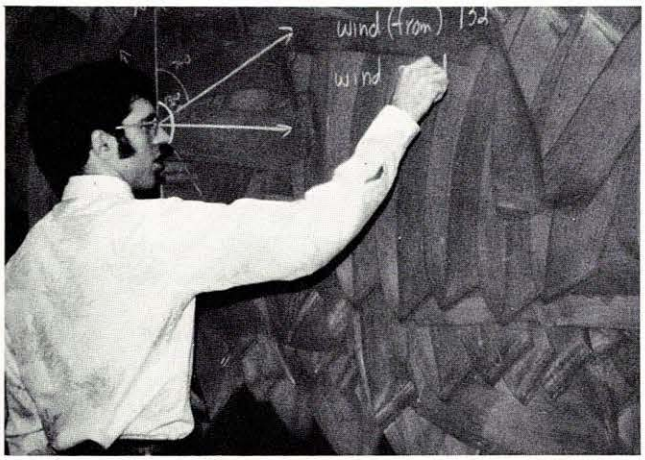


I must get caught up on my paperwork!

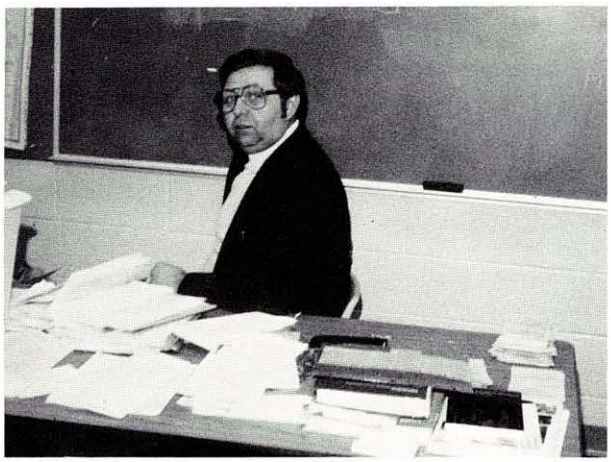
$E = mc^2$

Darn those lunch tickets anyway.

Yea, I'll take another kid the last period.



This is the reason why the wind is so strong on the hill.



Do you always write on the board backwards, Sut?

Bus Drivers

The Talon staff regrets that photos of all the bus drivers were not available. We tried on several occasions to get the drivers together. The problem was that the drivers were never at the school at the same time. The four shown are (left) Ray Umstot, (below left) Potts Maiers, (below) Junior Bowers and Ray Wagoner.

SUMMER

The Summer's Work Came to an End

Miss Falcon 1

In May of 1976, twelve girls were selected by the athletes to raise money and compete for the title of Miss Falcon I.

The girls worked all summer raising the combined sum of $2,100. The money was then given to the Frankfort High Booster Club to help meet the costs of athletic and band uniforms.

Tammy Houdersheldt was crowned Miss Falcon I by Dr. Charles Coffman, principal, during the Fun Fair on August 28. Linda Hedrick (right) was first runner-up and Lisa Bartles (left) was second runner-up.

Escorts were members of the Falcon football team. The candidates and their escorts were: Cris Wagoner and Benjamin Moreland, Cindy Rinker and Jerry Owens, Mindy Linn and Keith Payne, Linda Hedrick and Leo Day, Alanea Dick and Craig Adams, Lisa Bartles and Paul Hardy, Julia Campbell and Davey Hayes, Debbie Foreback and Ed Bittinger, Tammy Houdersheldt and Hunter Brakeall, Debbie Plumlee and Tony Benedetto, Dianna Riggs and Craig Fraley, Beth Weakley and Chris Lockard.

Falcons Roll in Opener!

The fantastic Falcons opened the season with a 35-0 romp over Hedgesville. To lead off the scoring, Alan Moreland ran 15 yards for the first Falcon touchdown. Leo Day and Donnie Wolford followed with 11 yard touchdown runs from scrimmage. Keith Payne ran in a blocked punt from 6 yards out. Moreland finished up the scoring with a 6 yard run. Paul Hardy kicked 5 out of 5 extra points. Reathard Moreland was presented with the game ball during halftime activities.

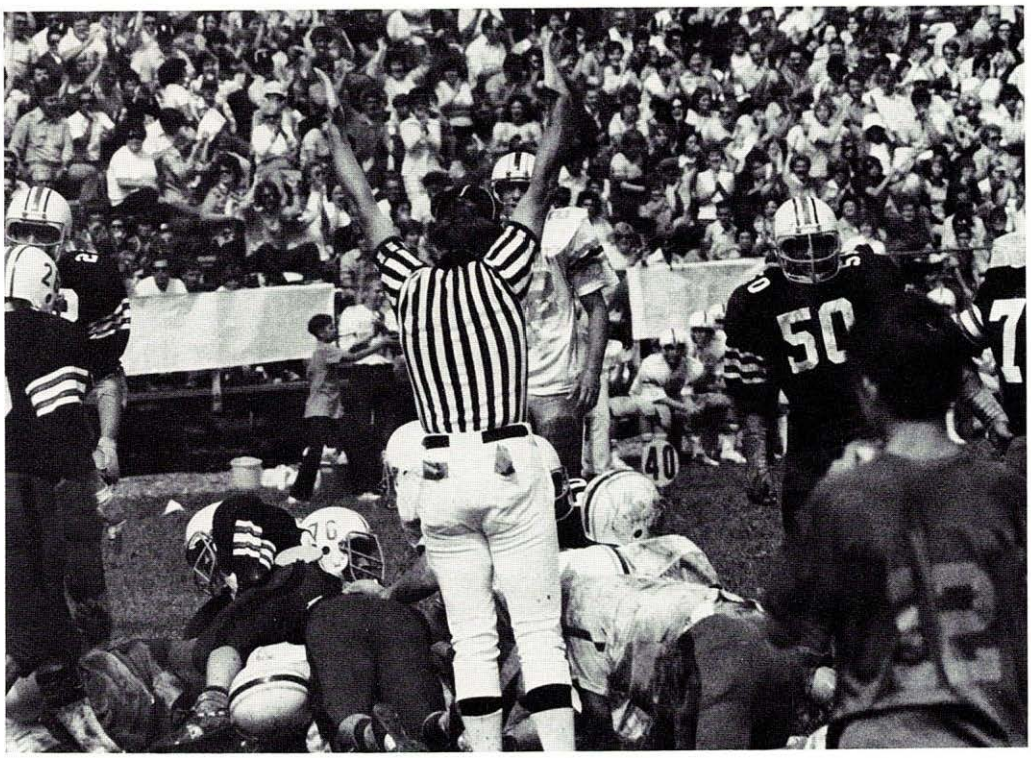
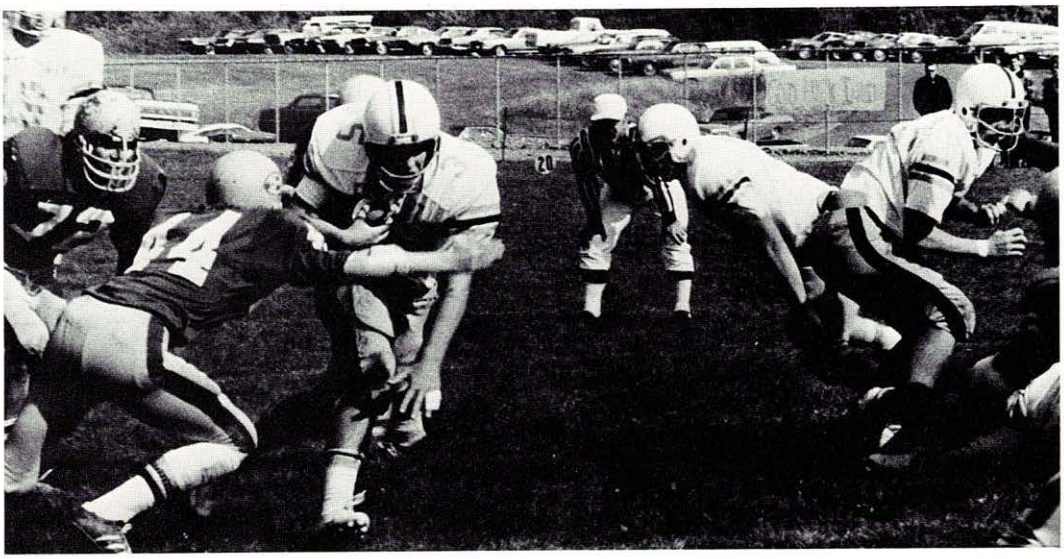
No Test For Our Talent





The Falcon's third victory was over the previously unbeaten Vikings. Donnie Wolford accounted for 3 of the 4 Falcon touchdowns. Steve Fridley claimed the other score. Paul Hardy brought in the extra points after each touchdown, making the final score 28-0.

The Falcons continued their winning streak with a 34-0 win over Berkeley Springs. Donnie Wolford, Alan Moreland, Steve Fridley, and Keith Payne took credit for 30 out of 34 points, with Paul Hardy clenching the other 4. The crowds were elated over the latest victories.

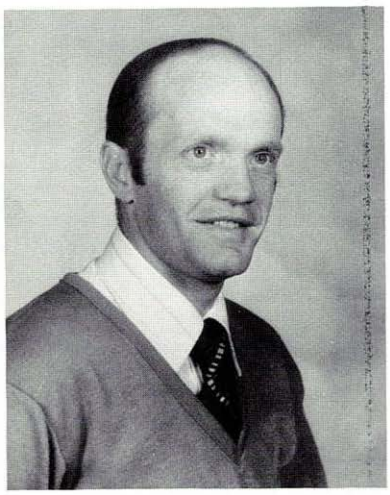
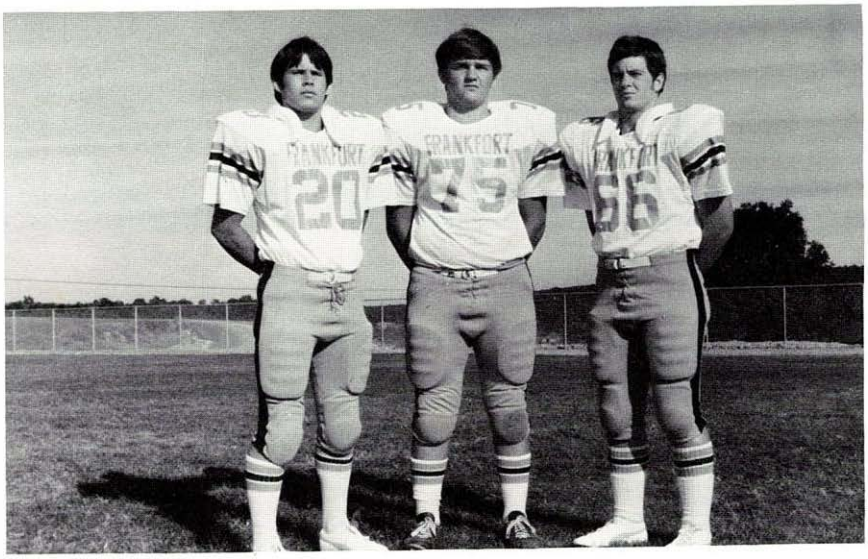
Our Coaches

The 1976 football season was a success, with special thanks to the coaches, Jim "Fazz" Fazzalore and Bill Manning.

Not only did these men coach winning football, but they instilled within their players a deep sense of self-discipline and dedication.





Those Who Helped

The captains for the football team were (left) Keith Payne, Paul Hardy, and Chris Lockard. Chosen by the team, these boys led their team to a 9-1 season.

The managers for this year were (left) Rodney Powers, Jeff Wagoner, Randy Duncan, and Gary Bradshaw.

The statisticians for this grid season were (bottom) Jim Bone and Dave Brakeall.

Falcons Attempt Ninth At Homecoming

Frankfort's first Homecoming game with the Keyser Tornadoes started with the fans believing it would be another easy victory as the Falcons rolled down the field and Steve Fridley took it over from the one-yard line.

Unfortunately, the Tornadoes totally devastated the Falcons by scoring a total of 39 points.

The statistics showed, however, that Frankfort outclassed Keyser: a 28-yard gallop by Donnie Wolford in the second quarter, the final touchdown, a 2-yard run by Steve Fridley, and Paul Hardy's conversion of three extra points making a total of 21 points.

Even though the Falcons lost their chance at a berth in the state playoffs, they won the PVC championship.

An Evening to Remember

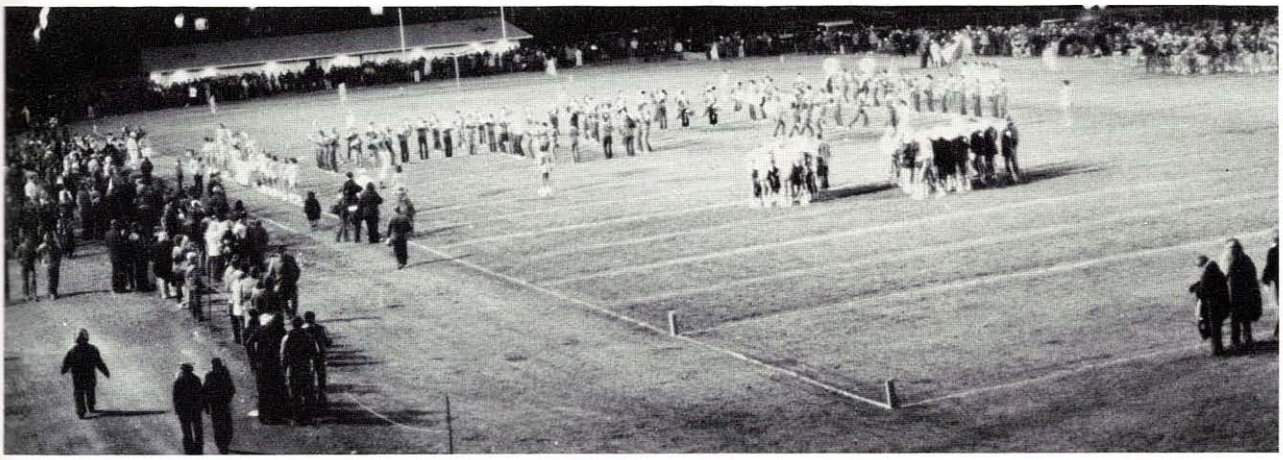
Frankfort High School celebrated its first homecoming Friday, November 5. Despite the snowy, freezing weather, the crowds turned out in heavy numbers to watch the two rivals, Keyser and Frankfort meet.

During halftime activities Linda Hedrick was crowned Homecoming Queen. Her attendants were (bottom) Dawn Marker, escorted by Greg Welker; Alanea Dick, escorted by Jeff Maiers; Mindy Linn, escorted by Kevin Turley; and Tammy Houdersheldt, escorted by Tim Hamilton. The Queen was escorted by Dave Welker. William Milleson presented flowers to the Queen and her attendants.

Also during halftime, the chorus, under the direction of George Ott, sang the newly written Alma-Mater.

Each class entered a float to be judged and the senior class float left was the winner.

A homecoming dance was sponsored by the Student Council after the game.



Cheerleaders

The Falcons were cheered to victory during football and basketball seasons by our eight dynamic varsity cheerleaders.

The cheerleaders were selected in the spring by various members of the community. These enthusiastic girls practiced long hours during the summer months to prepare for the games and pep rallies.

Tammy Houdersheldt (right) is the only senior on the cheerleading squad. She also served as co-captain and was squad leader during football season.

The girls were chosen in the fall of the year and cheered at the junior varsity and freshman football games, as well as the girls' and boys' basketball games.

Mrs. Beverly Johnson (left), their illustrious sponsor, assisted both the varsity and junior varsity cheerleaders this year.

Majorettes

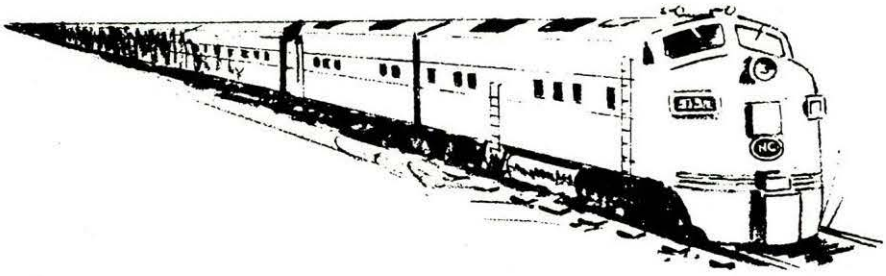
Frankfort's Student Council

The Frankfort High Student Council was formed early in the school year. Elections were held by the student body to choose the president and vice-president. By popular vote, Chris Lockard was elected president and Donnie Wolford vice-president. Three representatives from each class and one from each club were selected to be members. The council elected George Poling to serve as treasurer and Tami Pyles to serve as secretary. The Student Council has been very important in student – administration relationships, as well as arranging Homecoming and various other activities. Their members are (first row) George Poling, Donny Wolford, Chris Lockard, Tami Pyles, (second row) Carol Amann, advisor, Scott White, Penny Shriver, Kim Wolford, Giles Ungvarsky, advisor, (third row) Barry Mason, Chris Johnson, Allen Moreland, (fourth row) Debbie Lambert, Diane Ferguson, Karen McDonald, Lisa Knotts, (fifth row) Debbie Bratt, Keith Payne, Dave Welker, Steve Sluss, and Paul Hardy.



The Frankfort Express Staff

"The Frankfort Express" staff members are juniors enrolled in journalism. A major project of this class is the writing and typing of the school newspaper. The students are (first row) Cathy Abe, Jeanne Ryan, Pattie DeStefano, Joey Morris, (second row) Ed Conn, Barbara Oates, Carol Kenney, Keith Funkhouser, Joe Everett, Steve Valentine, (third row) Sandy Arbogast, Kathy Feaster, Don Wagoner, Karen Sluss, Bob Wagoner, Melody Shriver, (fourth row) Tammy Stewart, Pam Winterstine, Herb Dell, Tina Hill, Dan Kimble, Dawnetta Funkhouser, Gary Clites, Robin Kimble, and (fifth row) Rita Hollen, advisor. Those absent were Cheryl Branson, Melody Bittinger, Tammy Piper, and Jamie Cross.

The French III class, under the direction of Paulette Athey, prepared and served a French meal in honor of Peggy Schlarb, student teacher, early in December. Among the guests were Superintendant Richard Campbell, Curriculum Supervisor Mrs. Betty Livengood and WVU Student Teacher Supervisor Dr. Artha Deay.

Here are some scenes from the botany excursion earlier in the school year. Instructed by Bill Manning, these students have spent the warmer months mapping the area, showing county officials around, working on a nature trail, and transplanting trees around the school.

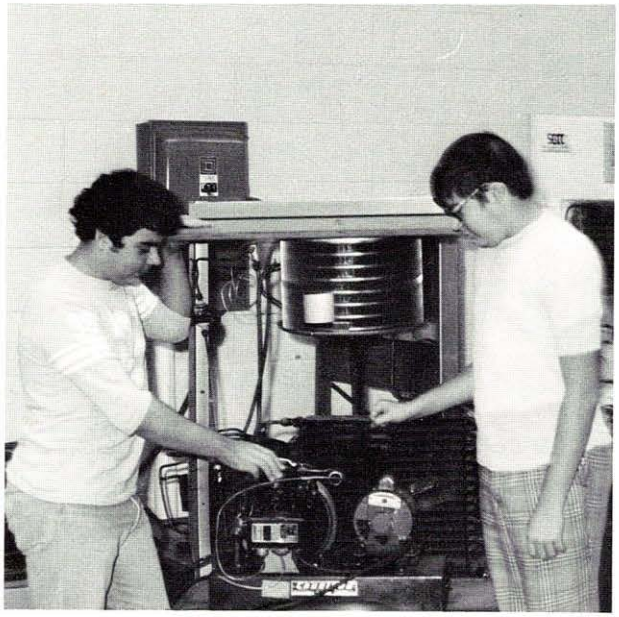
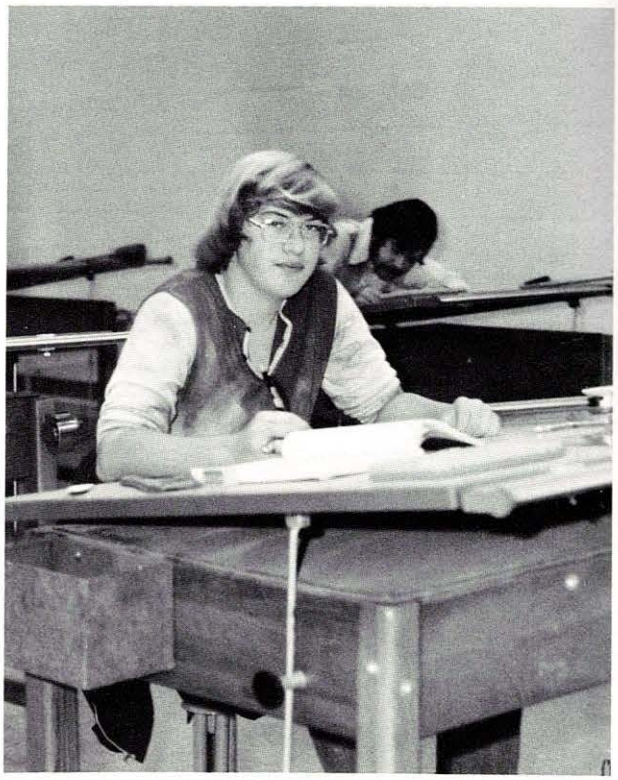
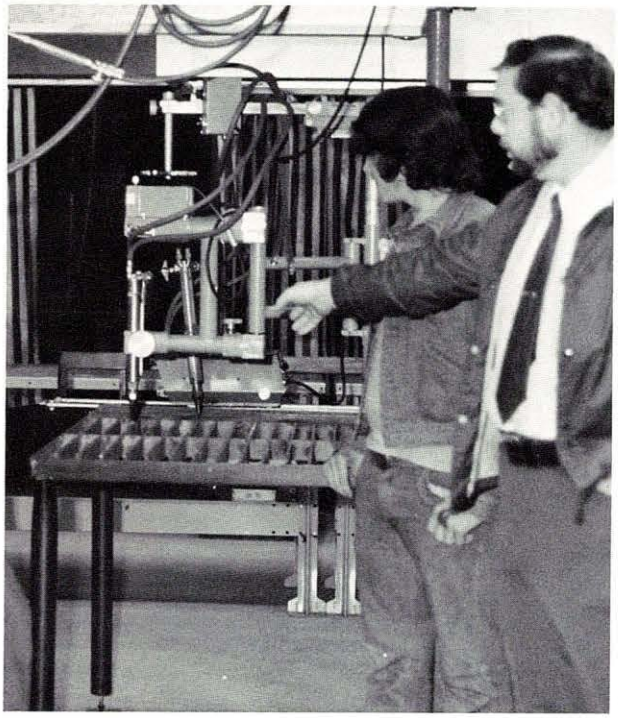
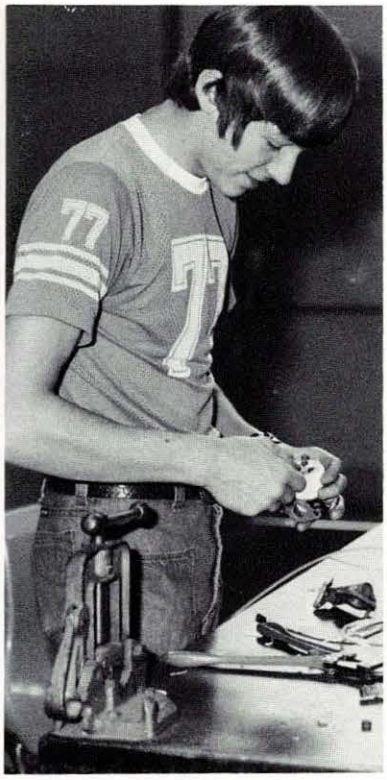
The Pep Club, advised by Beverly Johnson, was organized near the beginning of the school year. The club's activities have included sponsoring buses to ball games, selling sweaters, making posters, and boosting Falcon morale.

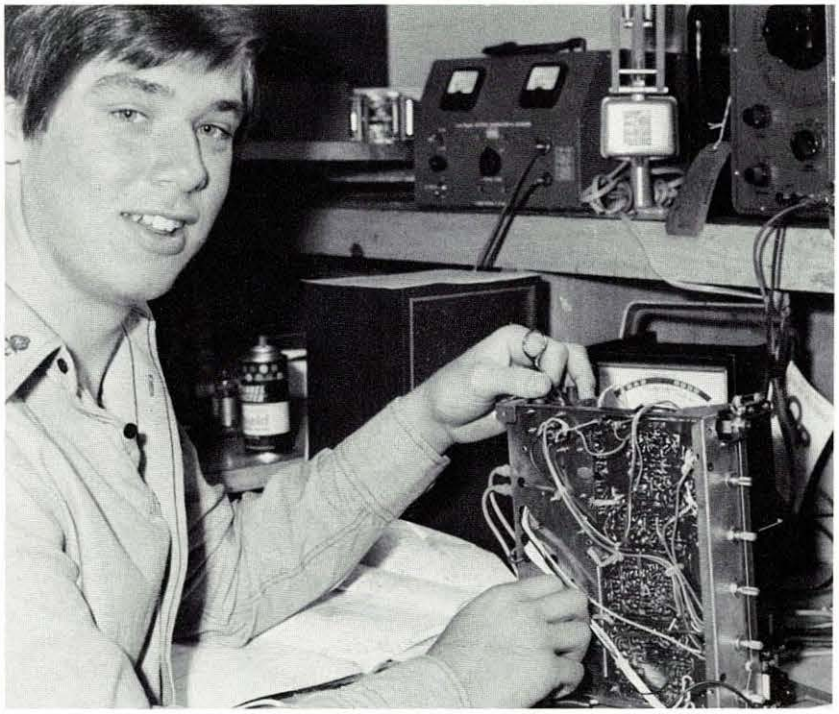
Vocational Technical Center

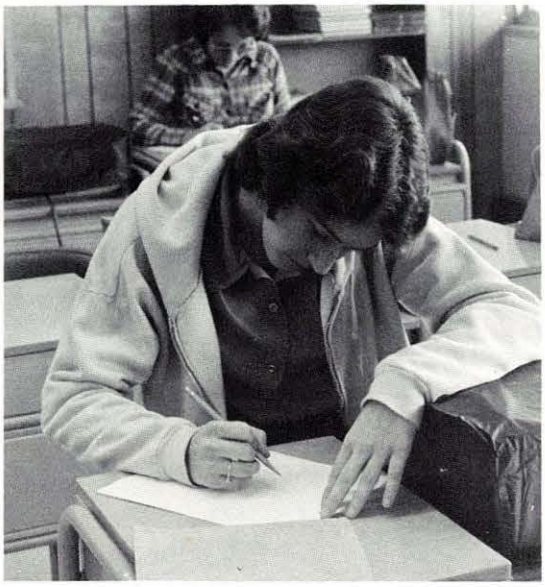








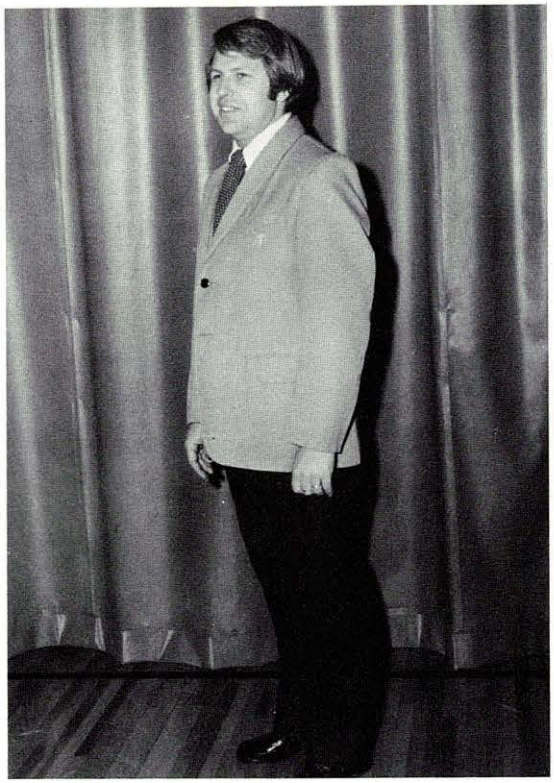




Many of Frankfort's students spent this year at the Vocational Technical Center located in Keyser learning various trades and skills. Pictured (left – top to bottom) are Davey Hayes and Doug Dickle in air conditioning and refrigeration; Mark Yankee, Donnie Corwell, and Dave Stickley in electronics; and Tim Sines in drafting. Mr. Valentine instructs Pete Corwell in welding. Other students and classes shown are (this page – top to bottom) Jeff Carder in agricultural mechanics; Cindy Garland in secretarial studies; Jerry Owens in electronics; and Eric Bosley in automotive mechanics.

The Coin Club of Frankfort High School was organized in December. The officers and advisor of the club are (standing) Frank Nicol, president; Helen Phillips, secretary-treasurer; Dr. Coffman, advisor; and Diane Ferguson, vice president.

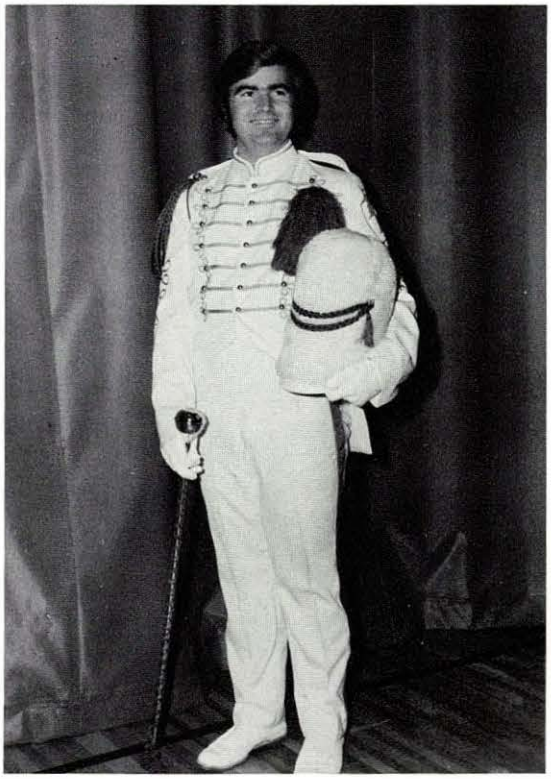
WINTER

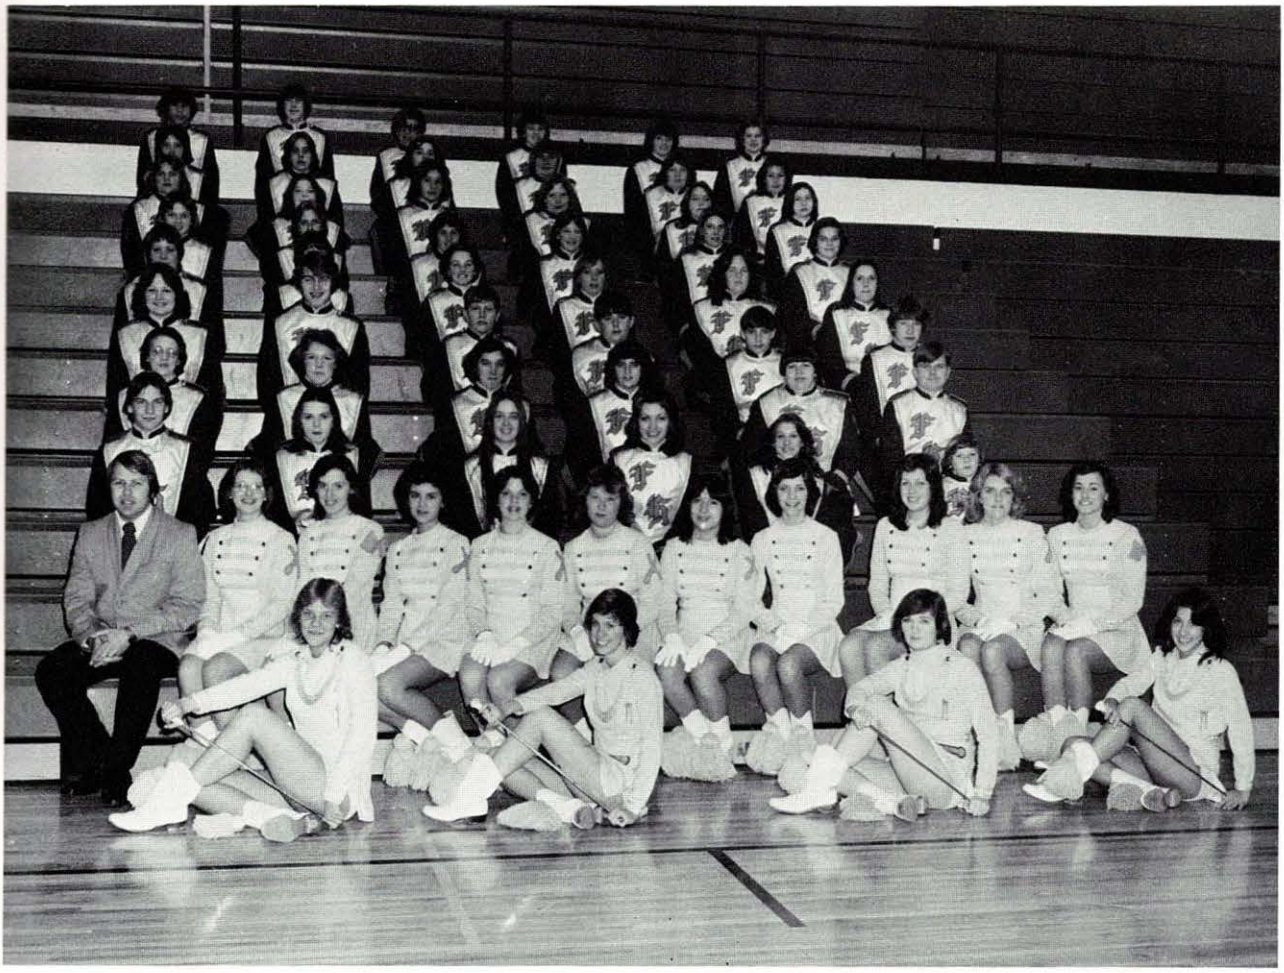


Falcon

The Frankfort Falcon Marching Band was quite active this year attending football games and parades, despite complications which arose with the uniform company. Clad in blue jeans and school sweaters, the mighty Falcon Band marched proudly and led our team onto victory. Under the direction of George Ott (left) the band worked diligently to achieve the high ratings at activities such as the regional band festival and various parades. This year's band was commanded during practice and performances by talented drum major George Poling (far right). With uniforms arriving in mid-January, the band still had many plans for attending parades and showing off their fabulous blue and silver outfits. Along with the majorettes, honor and color guards, and feature twirler, the unit as a whole totaled approximately 130.

Band





The Frankfort High School Concert Band (top) has been active this year performing at Christmas and holding Spring and Pop concerts. They have also competed against other West Virginia bands at the Region VIII Band Adjudication. Below are the members of the band who were chosen to attend clinic band. They are George Poling, Brian Gable, Larry Hutt, Donnie Wolford, Dennis Milliron, Shari Scott, Jakki Hatter, Beth Weakley, Linda Schoonover, and Julie Campbell.

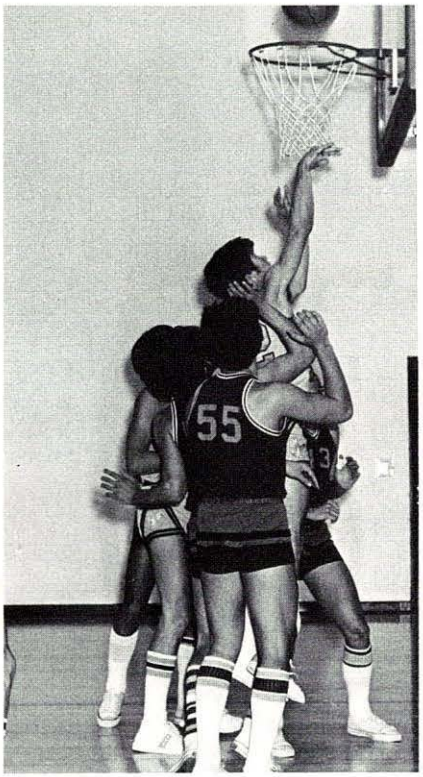
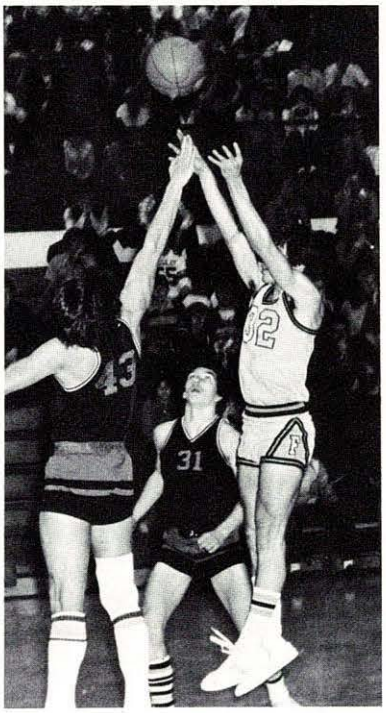
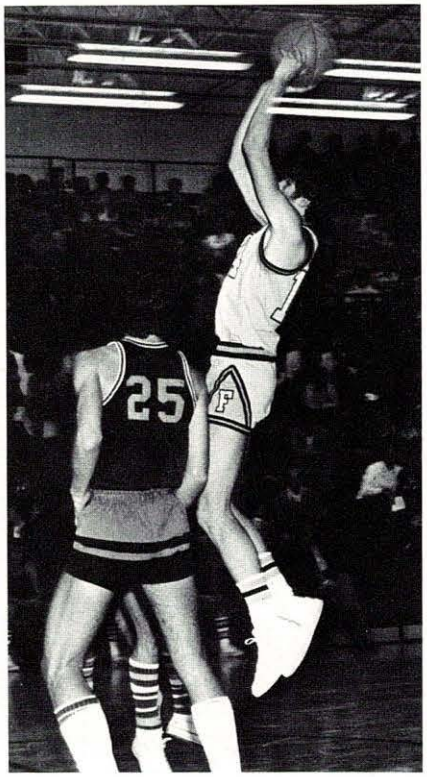
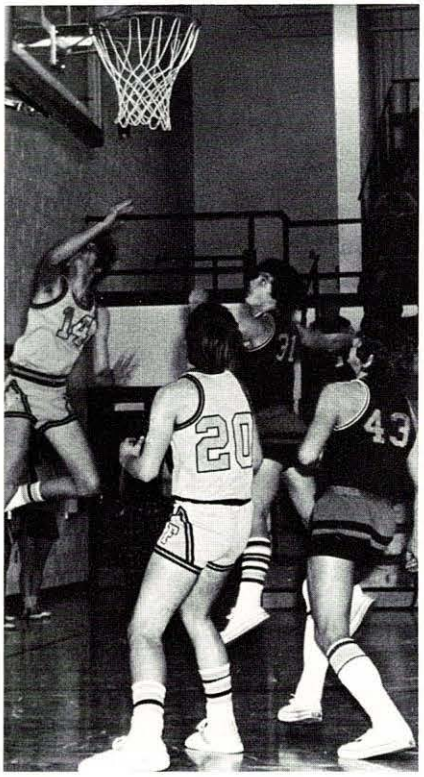
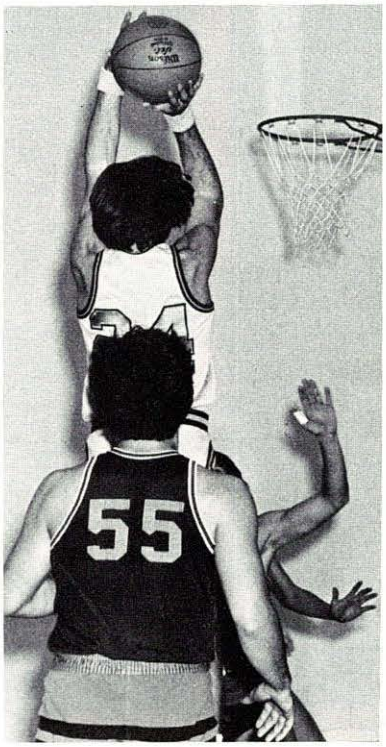
Our First Game



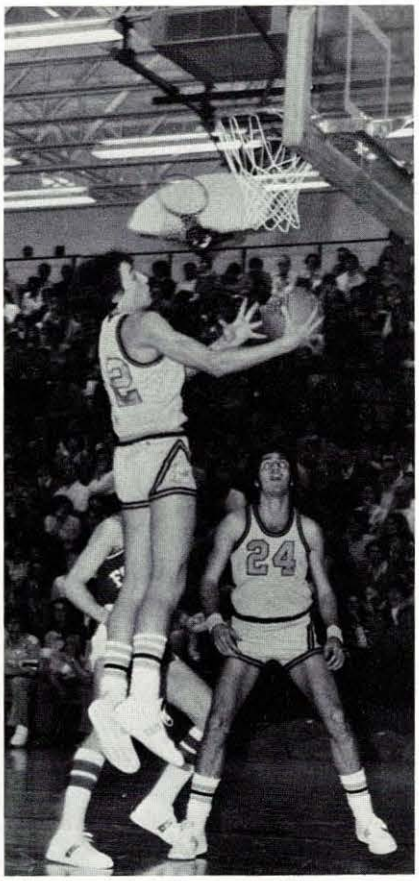




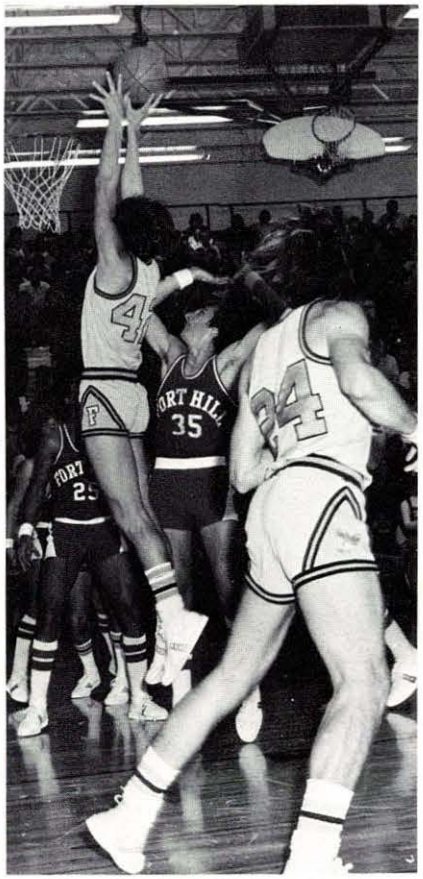




The Frankfort Falcons opened their basketball season on December 21 against the Beall Mounties. Frankfort, playing on their home court, found themselves losing by the score of 51-57. Score at half-time was 27-34 in favor of the Mounties. High scorers for Frankfort were Rodney Hutzell with 16 points and Mark White with 10 points.



Our First Victory



The Falcons found their first victory by a narrow margin against the invading Fort Hill Sentinels. Frankfort was far behind, 18-26, at the half, but a last minute basket found them the victors, 49-47! Greg Welker tossed in 18 points and the winning basket followed by Rodney Hutzell with 14 points. Needless to say, the fans were estatic. This was a victory well deserved.

Wrestling

Wrestling was brought to Frankfort this year as a new sport in the Frankfort district. The team has been through rigorous training and gruelling meets with other schools. Led by coaches Gary Bowen and Jerry Altobello (pictured at right), the Frankfort grapplers have provided their fans with exciting challenges and a few victories. Pictured above is the team (front row) Frank Forbes, Donald Lloyd, Greg Barker, Dale Peer, Scott Barker, (middle row) Keith Staggs, Rick Bonner, Eric Bosley, Russel Delozier, Leo Day, Robbie Fisher, Keith Payne, (back row) John Mudge, Mike Shay, Leman Wright, Paul Wagus, Brian Jenkins, Chris Douthitt, Jeff Logsdon, Eddie Conn, Steve Baker, and Mick Hatter.

Frankfort vs. Keyser

The Falcon basketball squad faced our arch-rival, the Keyser Golden-Tornados on January 21 on the Falcon's floor. The Falcons handed the Tornados a strong defeat which was just fine with the Falcon fans. The final score 76-52 clearly showed that the Falcons were the best of the two. Greg Welker tossed in 23 points for the victors with Jeff Maiers adding 19 points.

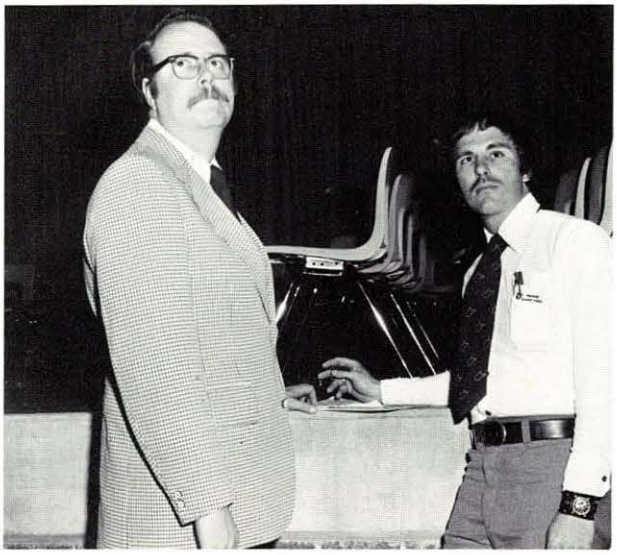
Science Club



The Science Club got a late start as it did not organize until January. However, these members (above) were encouraged by their advisors, Harold Lynch and Anthony Amato (right), and quickly began preparations for the annual Science Fair held in the spring. Science Fair prizes were awarded to county, regional, and state winners for their projects. Various categories included mathematics, natural sciences, and chemistry. The fair was held in Keyser.

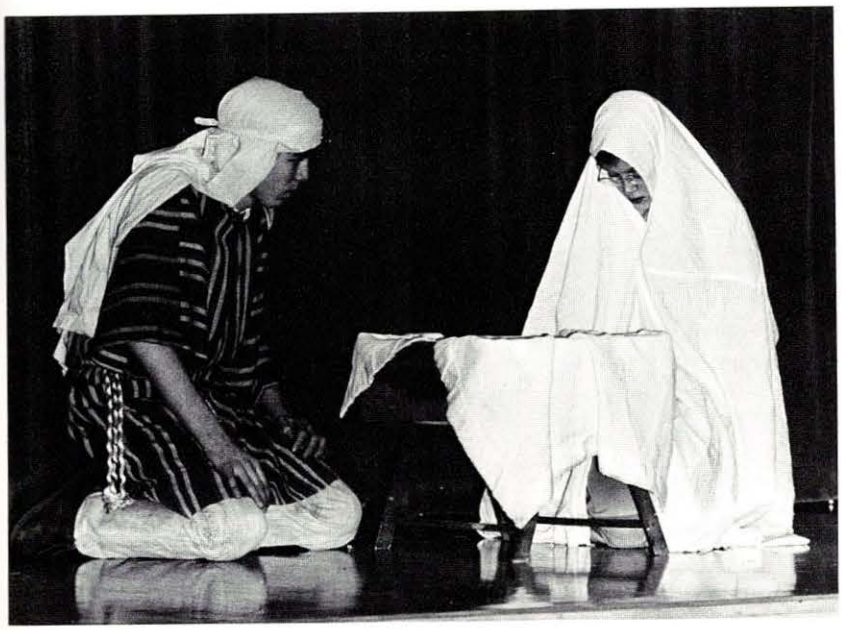
Future Homemakers of America

The Frankfort Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America is sponsored by Mildred Shepp, home economics instructor. Officers are Lisa Bartles, president; Norma Simmons, vice president of recreation; Dee Dee Foreback, vice president of project; Elaine Dowlan, vice president of public relations; Bev Hardy, secretary; Joyce Spencer, treasurer; Becky Corwell, reporter; and Kim Engstrom and Jackie Potts, historians.

National Honor Society

The Frankfort Chapter of the National Honor Society was formed by the selection of juniors on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Pictured here are this year's senior members with their two faculty advisors. They were all helpful in the organization of College Night, when representatives from various colleges and universities spoke to college bound students from the surrounding area. Pictured (top to bottom) are, Jeff Hartman, Dave Welker, Cindy Rinker, Christie Blauch, Debbie Foreback, Renée Davis, Steve Sluss, Cris Wagoner, Doug Kesner, Esq., Preston Miller, advisor, Jakki Hatter, Craig Fraley, Alanea Dick, Chris Lockard, Keith Payne, George Poling, Dennis Milliron, Cindy Riffle, and Bill Manning, advisor.

FTA/SAE



The Frankfort Chapter of the FTA/SAE was organized to give students insight into the educational process. Among their activities were presenting a Christmas play and showing guests around the school. Officers and advisors are (front row) Rita Hollen, advisor; Scott White, historian; Shari Scott, secretary; Julia Campbell, treasurer; Debbie Lambert, vice-president; Tony Benedetto, president; and Paulette Athey, advisor. The snap is of the manger scene in the Christmas play. Craig McClure portrayed "Joseph" and Liz Lease protrayed "Mary" in this scene.

Junior and Senior Choruses

The Junior and Senior Choruses performed many times this year, including Homecoming, Christmas, and a folk musical called "Tell It Like It Is." The choruses were directed by George Ott and accompanied on piano by George Poling and Barbara Raley. The snap on the facing page is of the combined choruses singing the Alma Mater for the first time at the homecoming game.

TALON STAFF

Editor's Note:

We deeply regret the loss of our dear friend and business manager of the Talon staff, Melanie Detrick. Her picture was not available, but we will not forget the many ads and subscriptions she sold to finance our yearbook.

Once upon a time in a land where new schools were rare, not too many people knew what to do with a yearbook. Several people were chosen to overcome the problem of publishing this book, but only a few actually accomplished the task. A whole month of school was wasted without having a publishing company, money, ads, or staff positions.

Out of this state of utter chaos came an editor-in-chief named Alanea Dick. Under her super advisor Rita Hollen and consultant Pat Brakeall, Alanea and the staff got the yearbook underway.

After the drawn-out battle of naming the yearbook, Talon was accepted and work began.

One evening while working (?), George Poling willingly volunteered his services to assist as a senior editor, later to be joined by his faithful companion Dennis Milliron.

The staff members who did their work in class are to be commended, but special recognition should go to the few who spent many nights in the cold dark halls of Frankfort eating and wheeling around on the typing chairs, always with layouts, copies, or pictures in mind. These people were Maggie Bean, Renée Davis, Donald Kirk, Pam Long, and Bonnie Wagoner. Our photographers provided us with many great shots, but the Talon, in much distress, was saved by Ruhl's Studios and an understanding Herff Jones!

It was with the help of all these people that we met our deadlines and ended up in a better state than when we started.

The End
(Thank God)

SPRING

Fellowship of Christian Students

The Fellowship of Christian Students was organized the last nine weeks of school. Those students and their two advisors, Preston Miller and Paulette Athey, met three days a week. Monday was for Bible reading, Wednesday for prayer and testimony, and Friday for singing. This group's activities included a picnic and a bike hike.

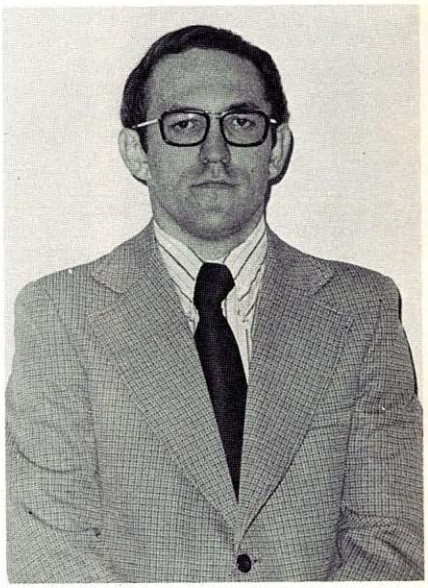
Campus Ministers



The Campus Ministry Program got off the ground early in the school year. Nine ministers participated in the program. Each Thursday a minister would give devotions to the Student Body. He would then remain for an hour to talk with interested persons.

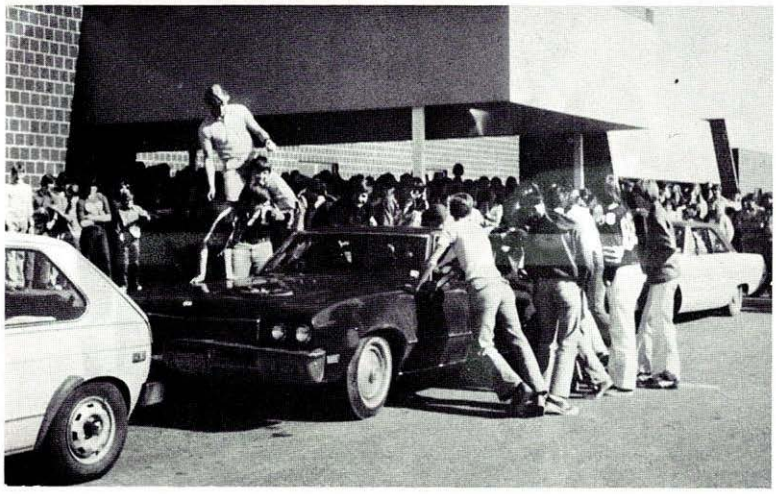
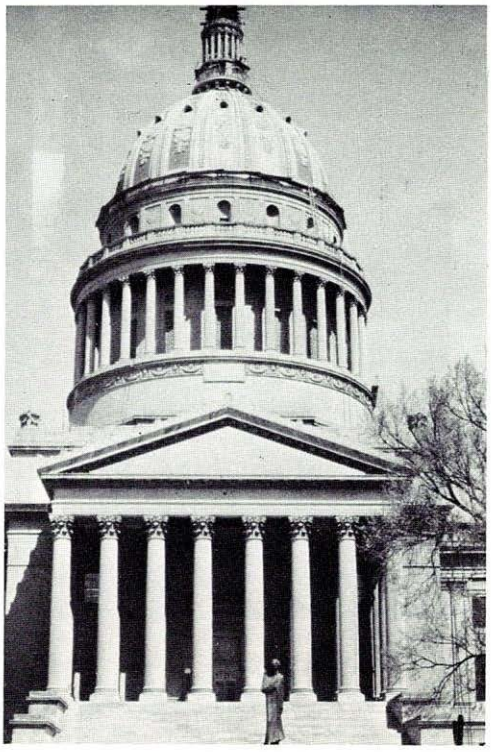
FALCONS STATE BOUND





The Frankfort Falcons, after a mediocre record of 10-10, faced the Moorefield Yellowjackets in the West Virginia Regional 3 Tournament held early in March at Potomac State College. Edging Moorefield by a narrow 71-68, the Falcons then confronted the Petersburg Vikings.

The Falcon's Greg Welker pushed up a tie-in shot attempt with three seconds showing on the scoreboard clock, boosting Frankfort to a thrilling 40-39 verdict over Petersburg.

This victory moved the Falcons to the Sectional 2 Tournament, also held at Potomac State College, where they struggled for a 61-55 win over Hedgesville. This achievement gained the Falcons a berth in the West Virginia Regional Tournament held at the Fairmont Armory.

Frankfort advanced to the state finals after staving off a furious charge by Mannington with a score of 60-55.

The Falcons put up a gallant fight in the State AA Semifinals in Charleston, but Winfield scored the last eight points of the game after a 57-57 tie late in the fourth quarter.

The hearts of the Frankfort fans sunk as the final three minutes went by without a Frankfort score. As the cheers died, the scoreboard showed a 65-57 score.

Coach Keith Sutton and his Falcons ended their season with a fight!

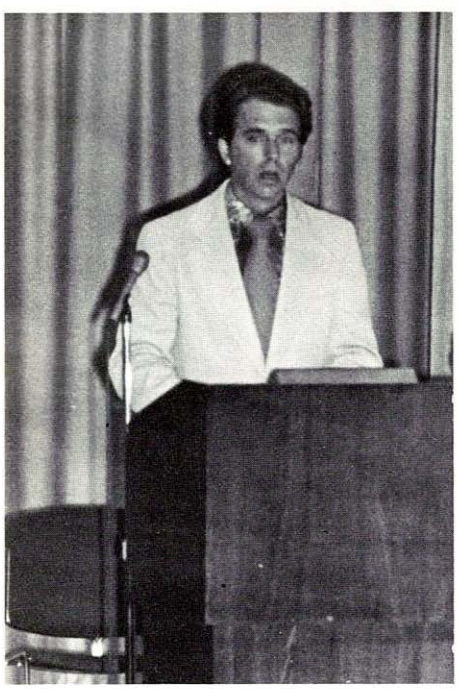
Frankfort High held its first recognition day for seniors and underclassmen on May 23. Various staff members and members of the community presented medals, trophies, and certificates to students. Many who received recognition are shown on this page. Others are listed below.

Art Medal: Todd Shriver
Speech Medal: Debbie Bratt
Physical Education Trophies: Davey Hayes, Linda Hedrick, and Linda Schoonover
Girls' Basketball Sportsmanship Trophy: Linda Schoonover

Baccalaureate Is Held



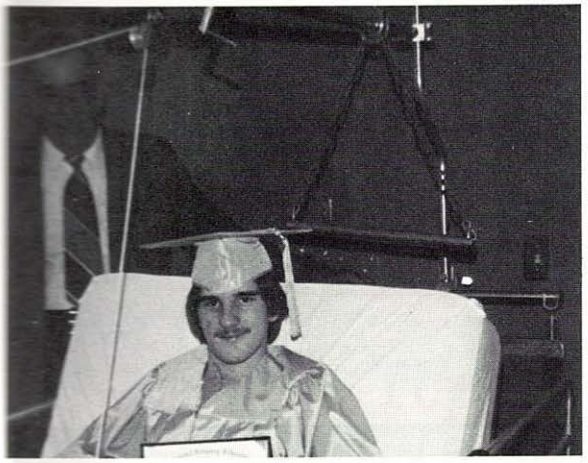
The traditional music "March of the Priests" by Mendelssohn played by George Poling and Doug Kesner brought the seniors into the auditorium for the first Baccalaureate service at Frankfort High School.

Invocation was given by Alanea Dick and was followed by a selection from the senior chorus directed by George Ott.

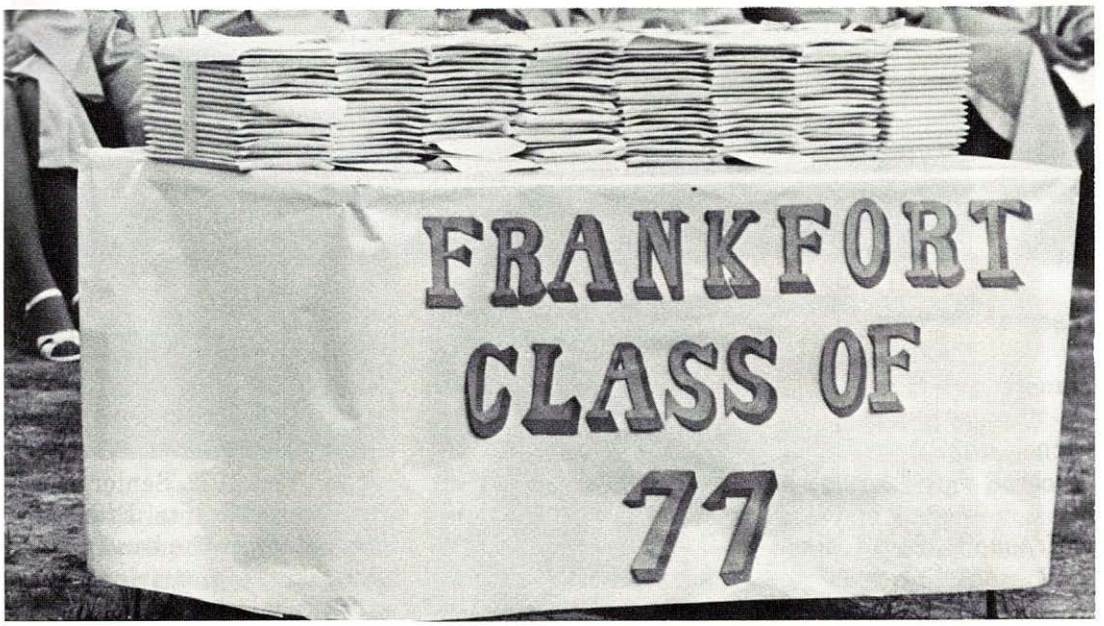
The Reverend Preston Miller, minister of Bethesda Church of the Brethren and also faculty member of FHS, presented the sermon to the graduates.

The senior chorus sang another selection. Chris Lockard delivered the Benediction.

History Begins



Frankfort's First Graduation

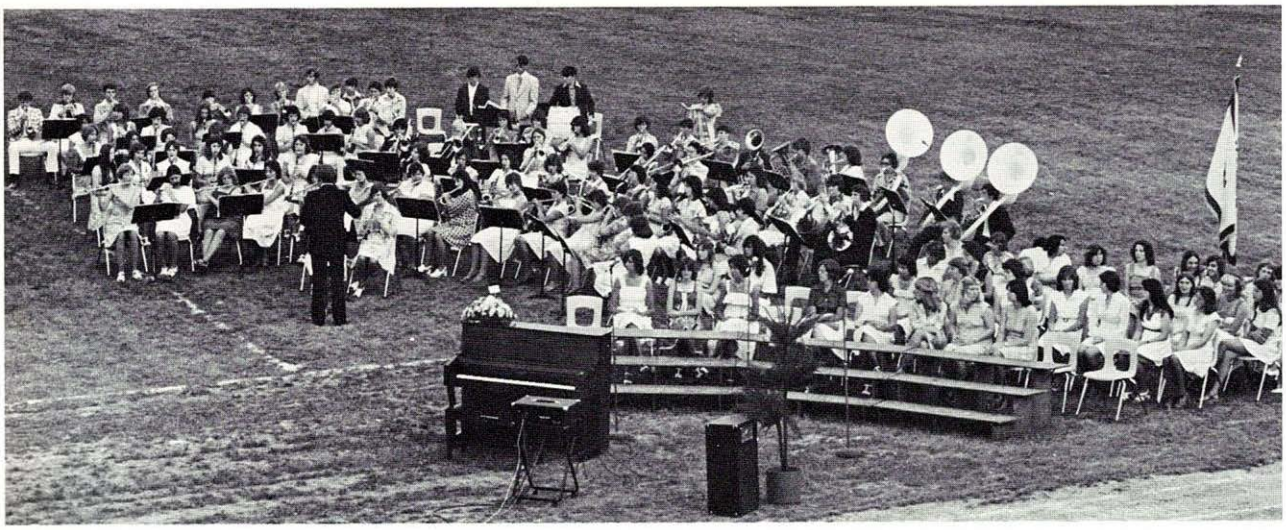


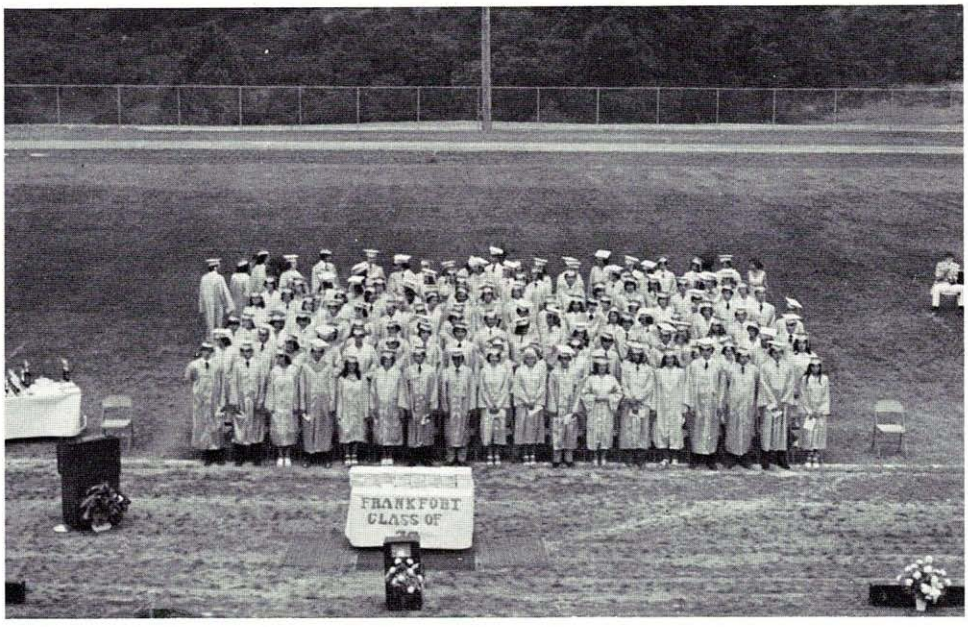
The junior ushers Tammy Pyles and Dave Savilisky led the seniors out of the auditorium.

Along with a few prayers for good weather, the first graduation at Frankfort High got off to a wonderful start.

The seniors began arriving, anxiously awaiting the evening ahead. After days of practice, the time had finally come!

The first to graduate from Frankfort was Bill Peer. Bill (upper left) was injured in a motorcycle accident. Fortunately Bill had his graduation ceremonies at the hospital.





The Frankfort High Concert Band under the direction of George Ott played several selections before the ceremony began. The 1977 Senior Class then marched into Frankfort Stadium while the band played "Pomp and Circumstance".

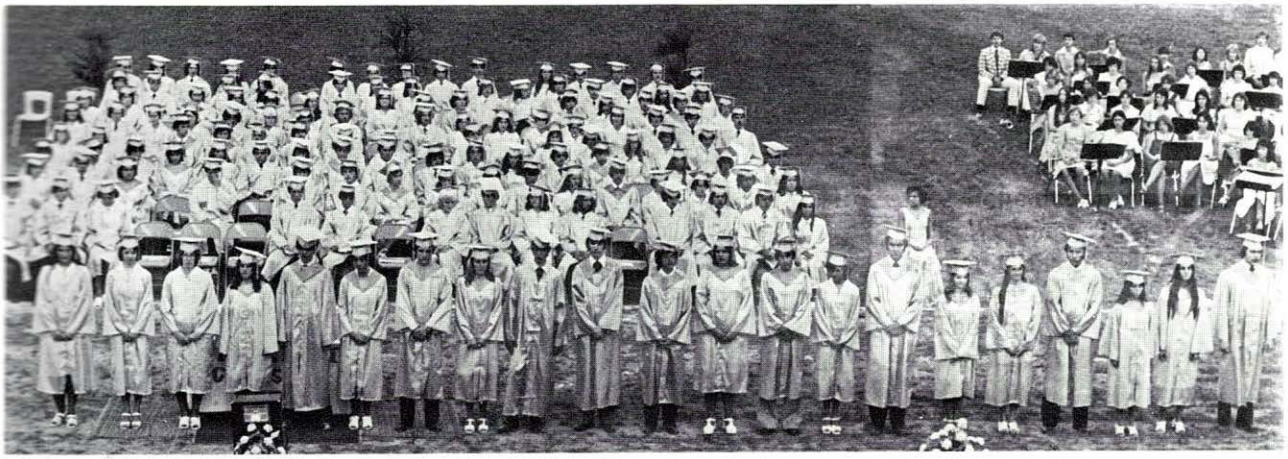
The Chorus, also directed by George Ott, sang two selections during the ceremony.



Top Twenty Seniors

Dr. Charles Coffman recognized the top twenty seniors. Afterwards, Senior Class President Dennis Milliron gave the Senior Address.

Announcements of special senior honors and scholarship were then made. The staff and various members of the community gave the awards.

HALLELUJAH!!!

Note:

As a closing note, the staff wishes to express sincere thanks to all those who helped with the 1977 Talon. Special thanks go to Mrs. Doris Herbaugh who kept the finances in order and to Mrs. Elma Duer and Miss Carol Jenkins who loaned us many office supplies.

We struggled many hours on the final lay-out and are quite satisfied with the chronological order lay-out which we finally chose. We regret that everyone was not pleased with the annual but, at the same time, understand that it is not humanly possible to please everyone.

We do think that in years to come, you will realize that the 1977 Talon did a good job of capturing the first school year. This is the true test for a school annual.
